Sheena Lyles

She | They

Comedian

Sheena Lyles was known for her comedy sketches as well as TV appearances and roles in such films as 2019's WHAT and TV One's For My Woman. Sheena was born in Baltimore, Maryland and raised in an undeveloped little city of York, PA since 5 years old. Sheena got her start as a comedian by performing the comedy sketches she created through her daily life as a deaf lesbian and entertaining old friends and new fans. She realizes she was inspired by many, so she started enjoying her journey in making sketches and to collaborate some deaf comedians.
