

RAD'S LGBTIQA+ OF THE MONTH

Alex Leffers

He | His | Him

LGBTIQA+ Activist

Alex is a Deaf and bisexual trans man. He grew up in a very conservative small town near Lynchburg, VA as the only hard of hearing/Deaf kid in school. Graduated from Gallaudet in 1993. Currently works at Gallaudet in the Division of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion -- first as the coordinator of the LGBTQA Resource Center. Now serves as the Manager of Communications and Community Engagement. He is an advocate, educator, restorative justice practitioner, and communicator. His role is to keep the community engaged in difficult conversations surrounding race, homophobia, transphobia and other forms of oppression. Alex is also a longtime Leatherman, into Kink and BDSM since 1997. He was the first International Deaf Leatherboy in 2005.
