

RAD'S LGBTIQQA+ OF THE MONTH

Vyron Kinson

He | His | Him

ASL Teacher

Mr. Vyron Kinson lives in Atlanta, GA. He owns a business which is ASL Diagnostic Service LLC. Currently, he works full-time with the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD) as a Communication Specialist. Mr. Kinson also works part-time with Georgia State University as an ASL Instructor (adjunct) and other interpreting agencies as a Deaf Interpreter/Language Expert. Vyron obtained a Master's Degree in Sign Language Education in August 2020 at his alma mater, Gallaudet University in Washington, DC. Vyron graduated from Gallaudet University in 2009 with a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work. Besides working and studying, Vyron contributes his time and energy to volunteering with the following: Georgia Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf as a Vice President and taking care of his home.